CONCEPT

Leading Change and Organisational Transformation

Leading Change and Organisational Transformation

This five-day programme equips senior leaders to design, sequence and sustain enterprise change. Curriculum covers change readiness diagnostics, stakeholder coalition building, sequencing and pacing of change waves, resistance management, communication architecture, and the adoption metrics that show whether change has actually landed.