CONCEPT

Leading Multidisciplinary Teams

Leading Multidisciplinary Teams

This five-day programme prepares leaders to run teams that span functions, disciplines and reporting lines. Curriculum covers shared-goal design, role clarity across matrix structures, cross-functional decision rights, conflict resolution between specialisms, distributed leadership, and measuring collective rather than individual output.