CONCEPT

Designing KPIs and Aligning Them with Strategic Objectives

Designing KPIs and Aligning Them with Strategic Objectives

This five-day programme teaches practitioners to build indicator sets that connect daily work to strategy. Curriculum covers objective decomposition, leading versus lagging indicators, KPI quality tests, cascading across organisational levels, target setting and baselines, data ownership, and avoiding the perverse incentives that badly designed measures create.