CONCEPT

Implementing OKRs for Leadership and Business Units

Implementing OKRs for Leadership and Business Units

This five-day programme takes teams through a full OKR cycle from drafting to retrospective. Curriculum covers objective and key-result drafting, alignment across units without cascading everything, quarterly cadence and check-ins, scoring and calibration, separating OKRs from business-as-usual metrics, and the common failure modes of first-year adoption.