CONCEPT

Data Management and Governance

Data Management and Governance

This five-day programme prepares data and IT professionals to establish governance over enterprise data. Curriculum covers data governance operating models, stewardship and ownership, data quality dimensions and measurement, metadata and lineage, master data management, classification and privacy obligations, and the governance forums that keep standards enforced.