CONCEPT

Service Design and Solution Design (Design Thinking)

Service Design and Solution Design (Design Thinking)

This five-day programme gives teams a working command of human-centred design methods. Curriculum covers user research and synthesis, persona and journey construction, problem framing, ideation and concept selection, prototyping at varying fidelity, usability testing, and handover into delivery.