CONCEPT

Quality Management and Process Improvement

Quality Management and Process Improvement

This five-day programme prepares quality staff to run structured improvement in a service environment. Curriculum covers quality management system fundamentals, process capability and variation, root-cause and problem-solving methods, standard work, customer-facing quality metrics, audit readiness, and sustaining gains after a project closes.