CONCEPT

Professional Customer Service for Public/Private Sector Entities

Professional Customer Service for Public/Private Sector Entities

This five-day programme develops front-line and supervisory staff who handle beneficiaries and customers directly. Curriculum covers service standards and expectation setting, communication and questioning technique, handling complaints and difficult interactions, service recovery, accessibility and inclusive service, and supervising for consistency across a team.