CONCEPT

Process Management and SOP Development

Process Management and SOP Development

This five-day programme takes practitioners through mapping processes and writing procedures that get used. Curriculum covers process architecture and hierarchy, mapping notation and conventions, SOP drafting standards, control points and RACI, document control and version management, process ownership, and periodic review cycles.