CONCEPT

Preparing Sustainability Reports

Preparing Sustainability Reports

This five-day programme takes reporting teams through producing a credible sustainability report. Curriculum covers framework selection and alignment, materiality and stakeholder input, data collection and internal controls over non-financial data, target and baseline disclosure, assurance readiness, narrative and design, and the reporting calendar.